The American Kennel Club's Canine Good Citizen test (CGC) is a certification program that evaluates dogs in simulated everyday situations in a noncompetitive atmosphere. Dogs that pass the CGC test are considered reliable family and community members and will receive a certificate from the American Kennel Club.

The 10 test items on the CGC test are practical, functional behaviors that every dog should have to be welcomed in the community.

1. Accepting a friendly stranger: Evaluator approaches and pretends to shake hands with handler (hands 6- 12" apart). Evaluator does not touch dog.
2. Sitting politely for petting: Evaluator pets dog; dog must show no shyness or resentment.
3. Appearance and grooming: Evaluator inspects dog, combs or brushes lightly, examines ears and each front foot.
4. Out for a walk: Handler takes dog for a short walk including right turn, left turn, about turn and stop.
5. Walking through a crowd: Dog and handler walk close to several people; dog may show causal interest but not jump up.
6. Sit and down on cue/Staying in place: Handler shows that dog can do both sit and down, then chooses a position, leaves dog and goes to the end of a 20 ft. line, and returns immediately
7. Coming when called: With dog still on 20 ft. line from Test 6, handler walks out 10 ft. and calls the dog.
8. Reaction to another dog: Two handlers and dogs approach, pretend to shake hands (hands 6-12" apart), exchange pleasantries, then move on.
9. Reaction to distractions: Distractions are presented; dog may not panic or show aggression.
