MASK WEARING ON HVOC'S FIELD

Per the latest CDC guidelines, masks are no longer required on the field if you are fully immunized. If you are not, you may still participate, but you may want to consider wearing a mask. Remember the Covid 19 immunizations only fully protect you against serious illness, hospitalizations and death. None will give you 100% protection from illness, particularly against the new variants. A mild infection may result in long term debilitating effects. So use your best judgement knowing the risks.
