A Class for Dogs and a Class for Bitches with confirmed Lure Coursing or Open Field Titles. Titles may be from any recognized coursing organization. NOTE: Exhibitors MUST supply proof of eligibility for class with entry. A copy of the certification awarding the title or a copy of the ENTIRE PAGE from either the AKC Awards or FAN magazine publishing the title will be accepted as proof. First Place winners are eligible for Best of Breed Competition provided all AKC eligibility and requirements have been met. Entrants must be intact.

Non-Regular Classes (Involving Multiple Dog Entries)

The Stud Dog may be entered separately in one of the regular classes, or if a Champion of Record in Best of Breed (Variety) Competition, but MUST be entered in the Stud Dog Class. The Get MUST be entered in one of the regular classes. The Stud Dog shall be considered as one entry and requires one entry fee, this being the regular fee plus the additional class fee if the Stud Dog is entered in another class. The Stud Dog must be shown in the ring with the Get. The class will be judged on the merits of the Get.

Brood Bitch Class: Same as for the Stud Dog except substitute Brood Bitch for Stud Dog and Produce for Get.

Brace Class: Two Dogs, performing in unison, and presented by a maximum of two handlers. Both dogs competing in the brace class must have at least one common owner. Dogs do not need to be entered in any other class. Dogs comprising a Brace Class must be named at the time of entry, and full particulars must be given for each dog on individual entry forms. If a dog which is to be part of a Brace is not entered in another class, it must be entered for "Brace Class only." An entry form for a dog entered in another class and entered as part of a Brace must be marked accordingly in the space provided for additional classes as "Brace Class."

Note: As the judge's decision in the Non-Regular Classes involving Multiple Dog Entries is based on the merits of more than one dog or bitch, no one of the dogs or bitches making up the entry judged first in these classes will be eligible to compete for Best of Breed by virtue of having won these classes.

Important Exhibitor Information

All specialties are being held under a Show-and-Go format. We understand that these events take longer and the show and go rules do not work as well and people will be staying ringside longer when they have multiple dogs to show. Please remember, masks are always required when on the grounds. When you bring dogs and crates to your ring area please keep social distance from other set-ups. We have lots of room so stay spread out.

No raffles or other group activities unless approved by the show chairman.

“Pop ups” or shade canopies will be permitted but they must be removed Friday when judging is completed.

No grooming ringside - Brush/comb to touchup only. Bring your dogs ready to show.
