There is no acceptable excuse for breaking or being unfamiliar with the rules.

All specialties are being held under a Show-and-Go format. We understand that these events take longer and the show and go rules do not work as well and people will be staying ringside longer when they have multiple dogs to show. Please remember, masks are always required when on the grounds. When you bring dogs and crates to your ring area please keep social distance from other set-ups. We have lots of room so stay spread out.

No raffles or other group activities unless approved by the show chairman.

"Pop ups" or shade canopies will be permitted but they must be removed Friday when judging is completed.

No grooming ringside - Brush/comb to touchup only. Bring your dogs ready to show.

Juniors which according to their records have completed the requirements to compete in the Open class but whose status is unconfirmed by the American Kennel Club are limited to competing in the Open Class for a period of 90 days from the date of the show where the Junior completed the requirements according to their records.

The calendar for this class will be consistent with the eligibility dates for the AKC National Championship. All Juniors meeting the criteria for this class are required to enter the Master Class and may change their entry the day of the show if entries have already closed. Once the eligibility time frame for that year has passed all participants return to the Open Class to compete for the following year.

After the judge has awarded the Best Junior Handler, the second place winner from the class that the Junior was awarded Best Junior Handler is to return to the ring to compete for Reserve Best Junior Handler
